MR. AND MISS O.H.S.

Mark Penick Susan Riley

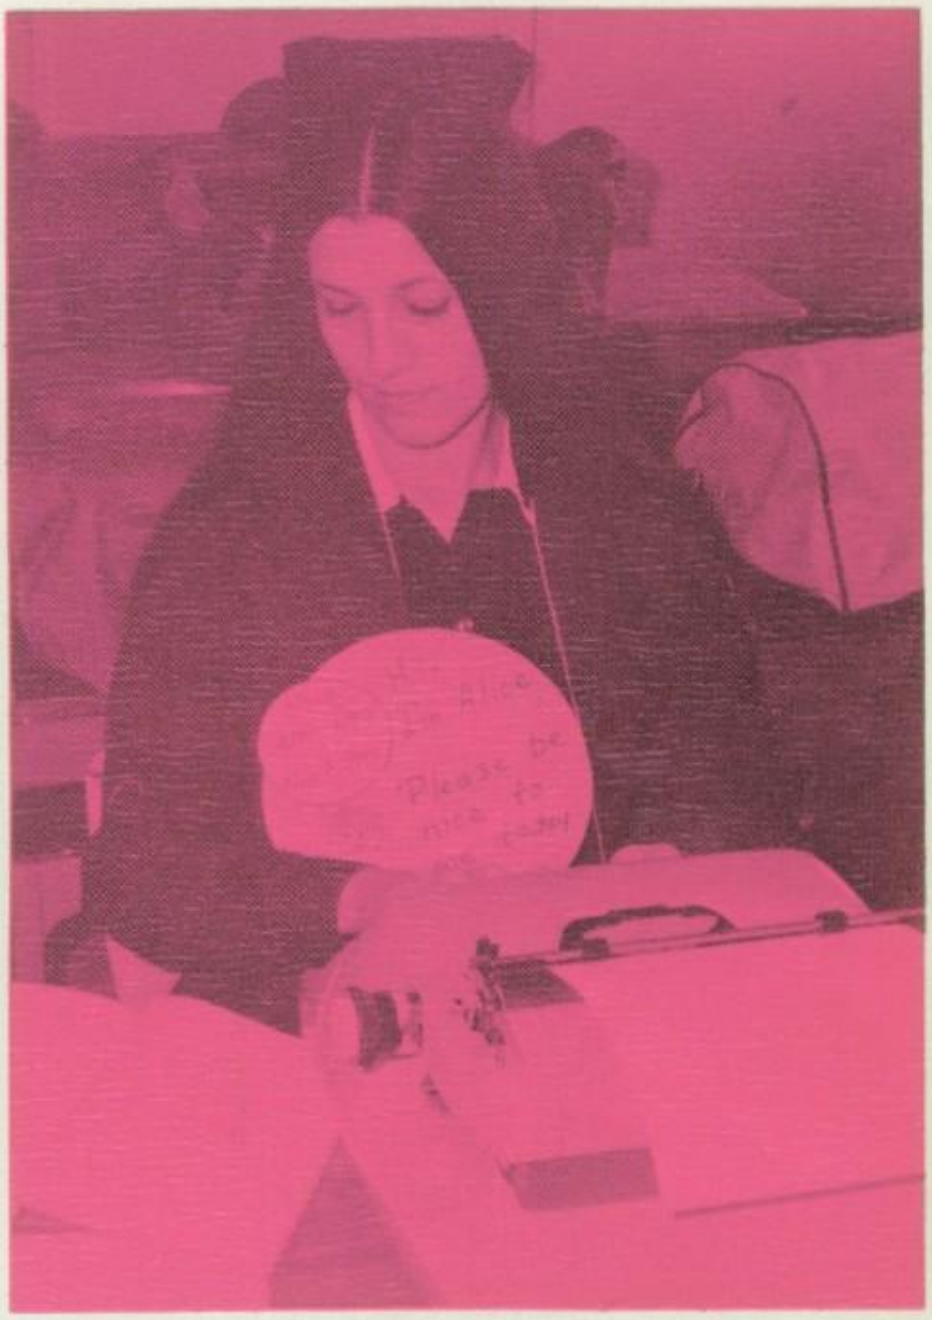
WHO COULD FORGET

THE TIMES WHEN

you were able to get a cold drink from the water fountain.

Initiation Day

Alice on her day

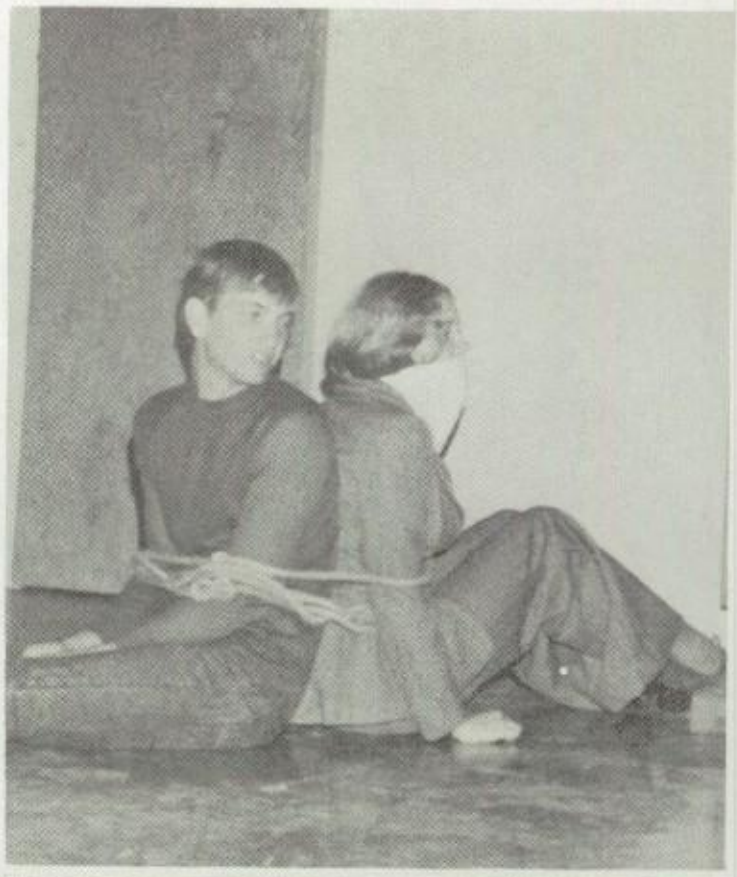


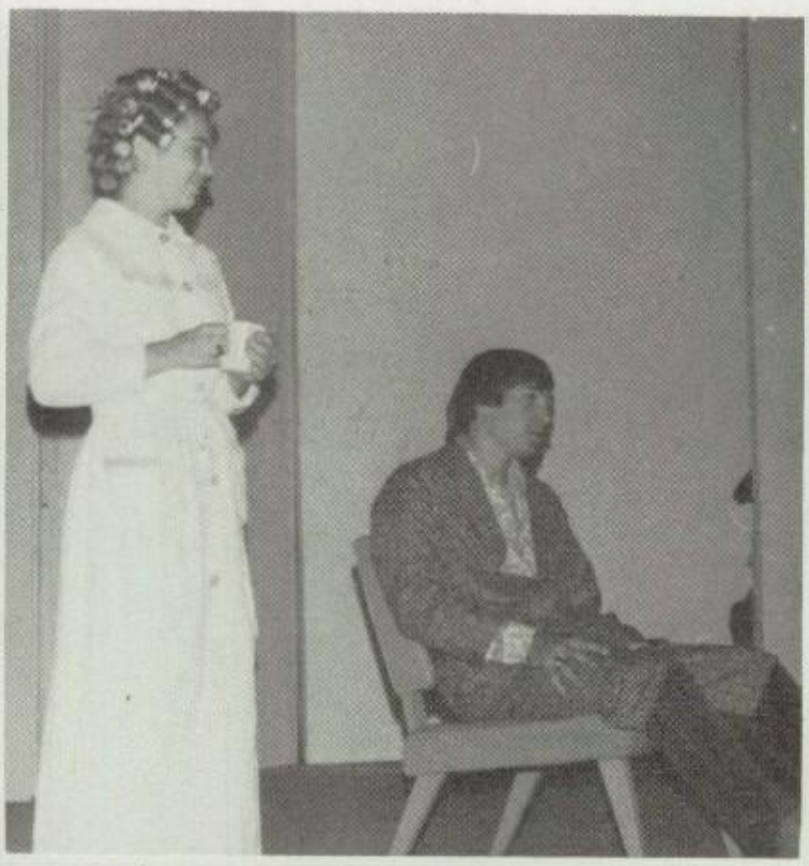
when we had Hamburgers for lunch

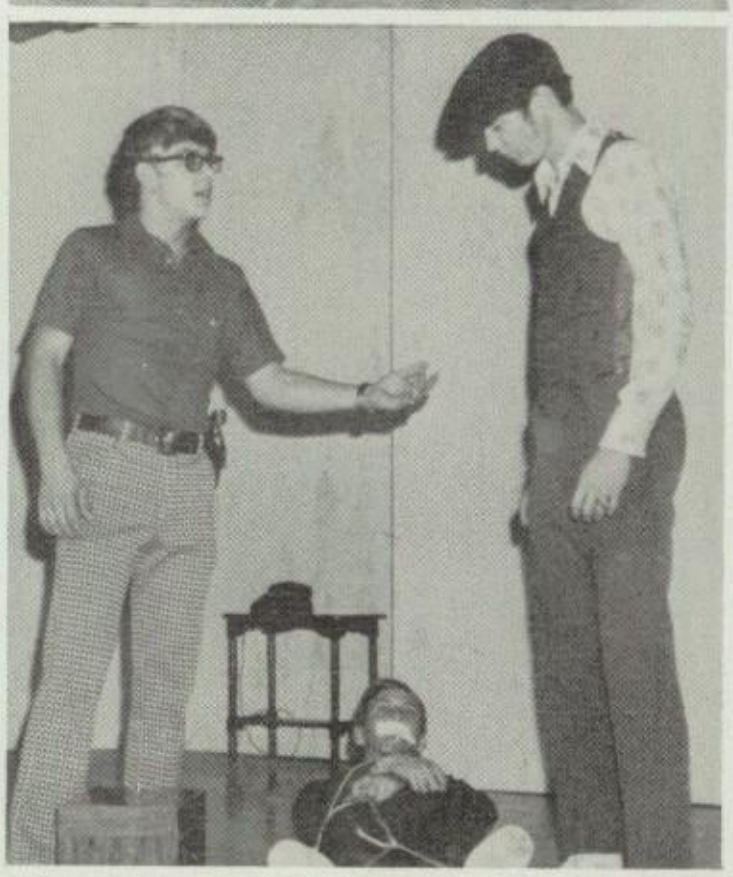
swinging at noon

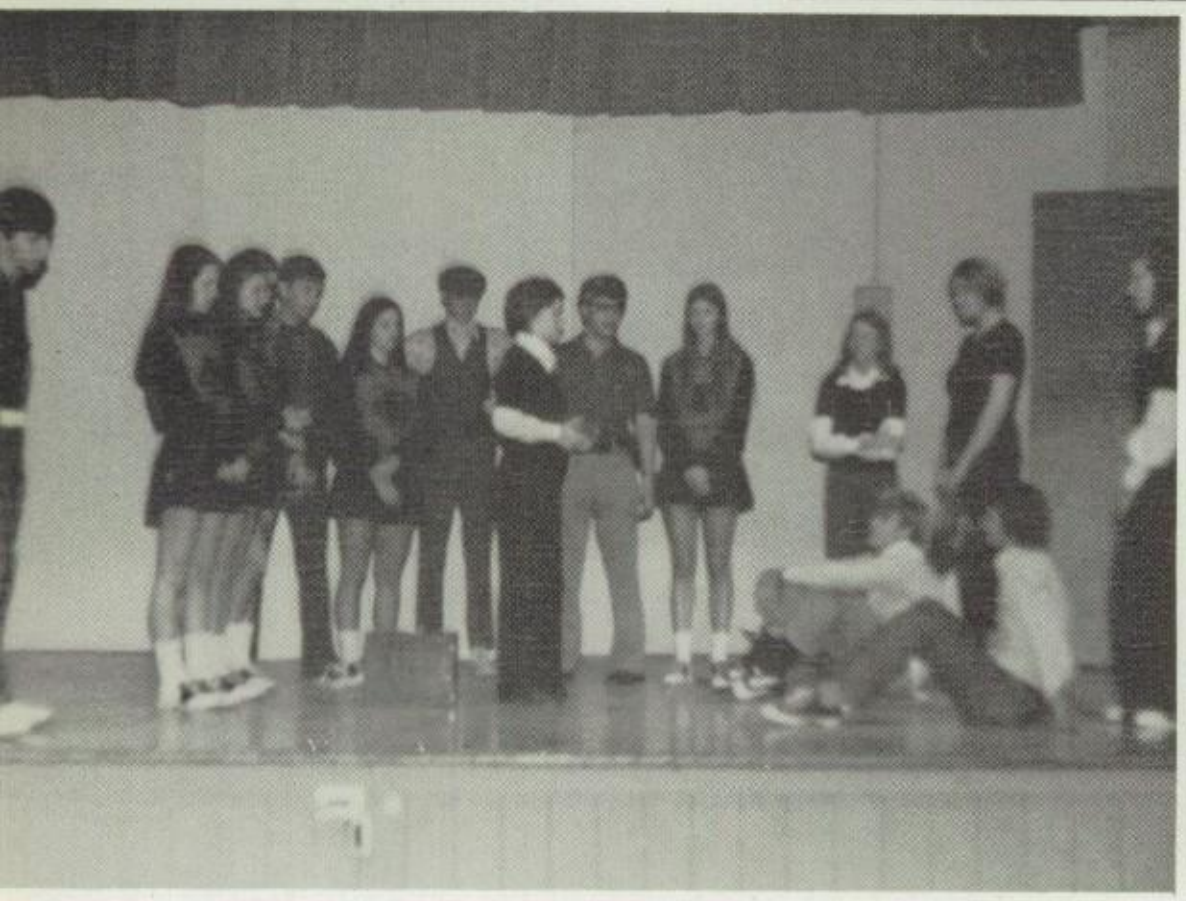
A TIME OF SUSPENSE AND HUMOR

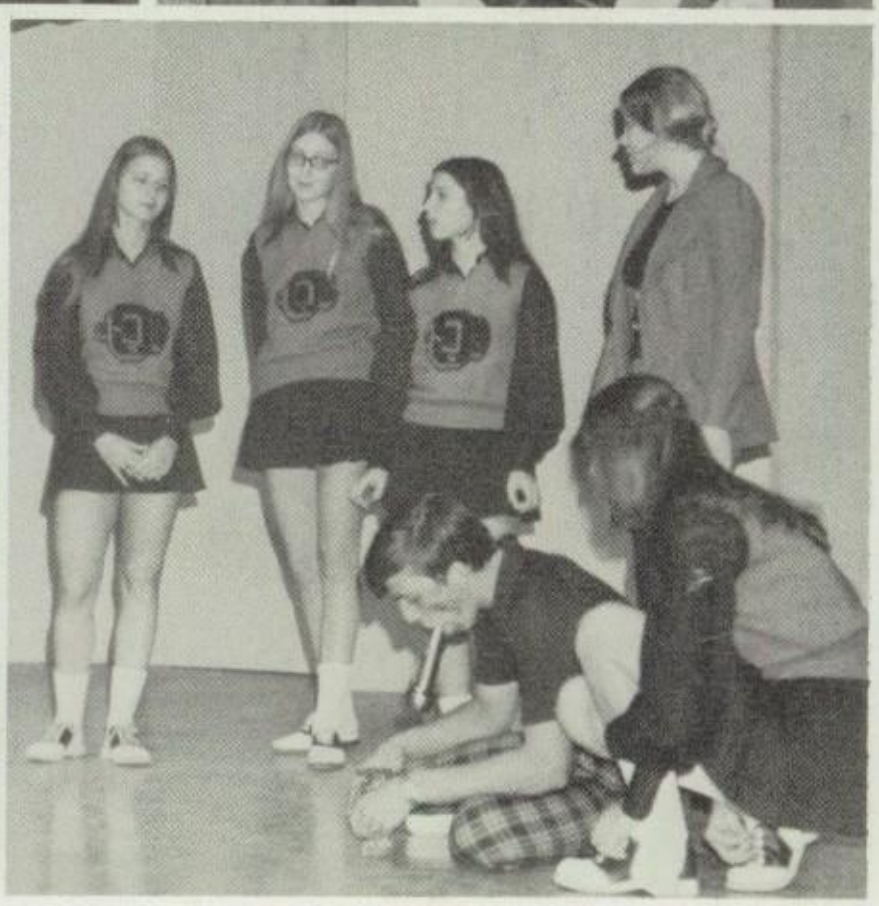
With their chaperon all tied up and their worried parents at home, a group of high school students, returning from an away ballgame, have car trouble, and become stranded and trapped in an old house with two small time crooks that have really pulled off a big job against the "Family" by mistake. But the ending is a happy one when a group of women libbers rescue the group. "Happy Haunting", the senior play, was a hilarious success.











CHRISTMAS TIME

A TIME OF JOY

AND HAPPINESS

With an observance of its true meaning.

With many happy voices lifted in song to tell of the joyous season.

With funny skits enjoyed by all and of course all the parties.

THERE WERE WONDERFUL AND COLORFUL TIMES

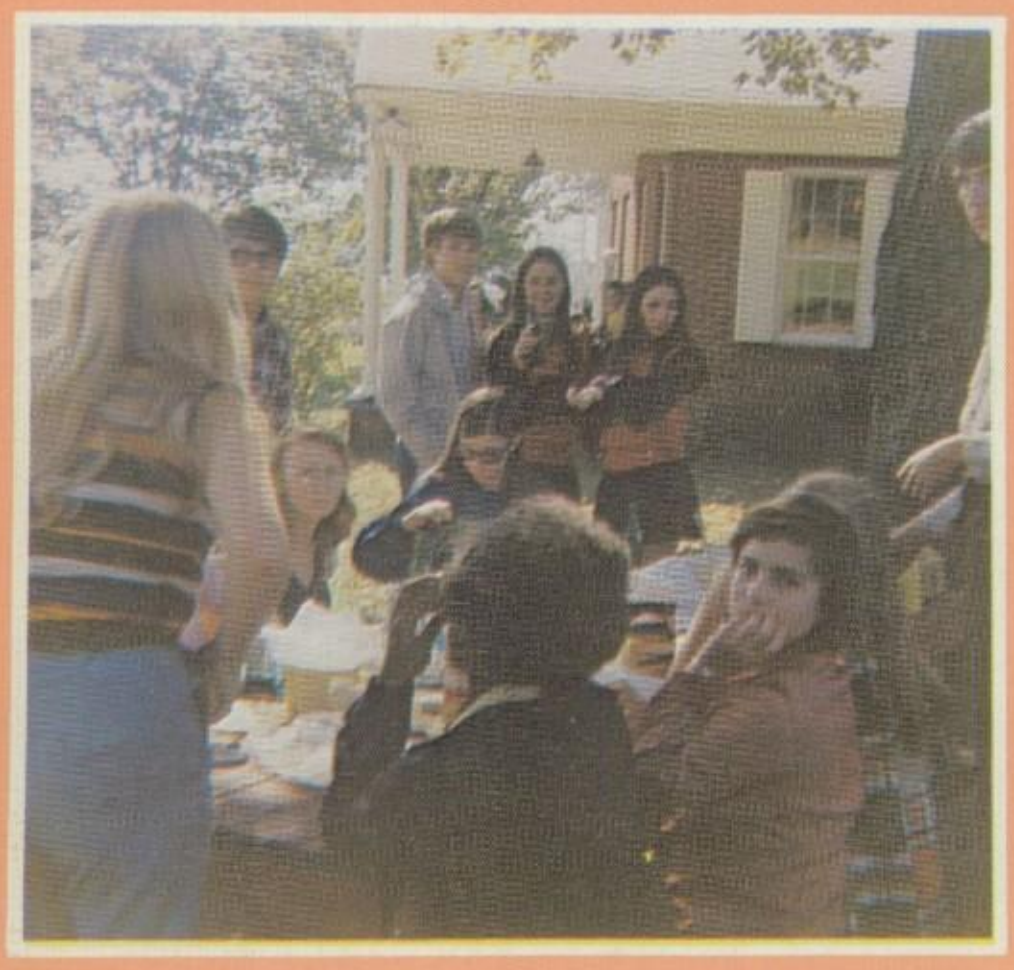
when we played



when we went to classes

when we had special occasions

when we kidded around

and when we prepared to say good bye

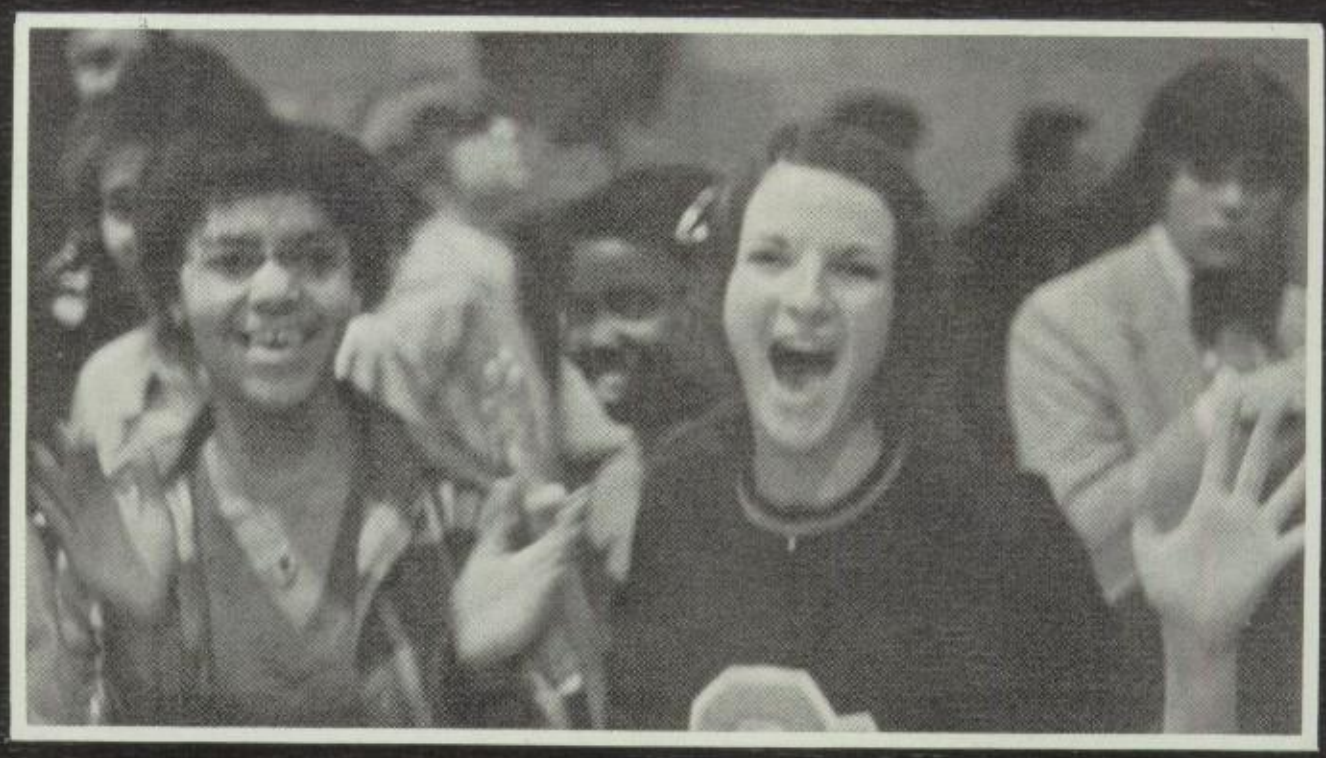
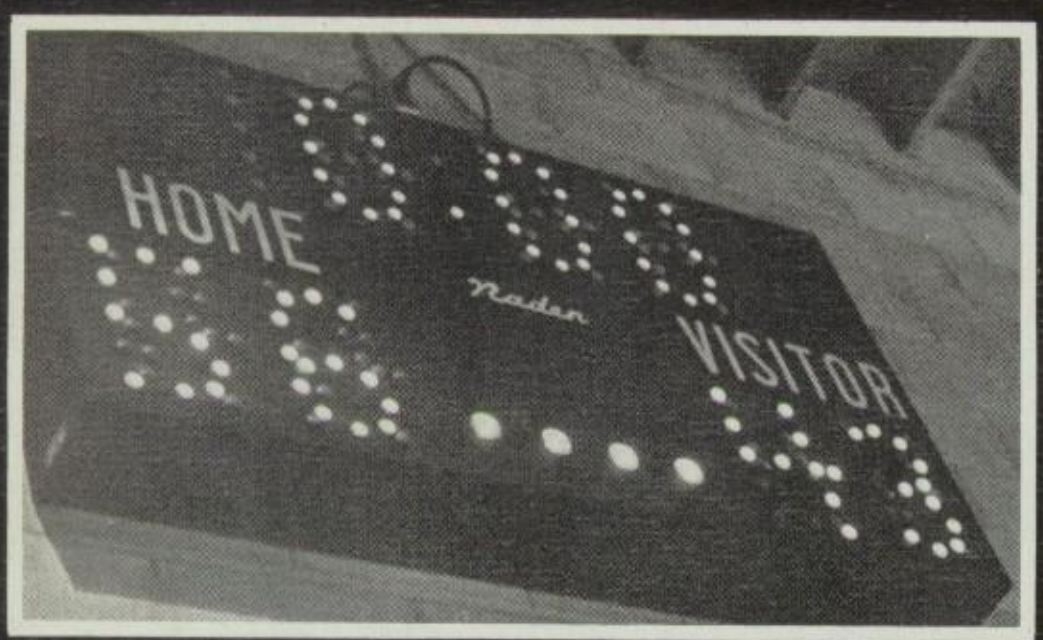
A TIME OF HAPPINESS



WITH A HOMECOMING VICTORY OVER ADAIRVILLE: 56 TO 43

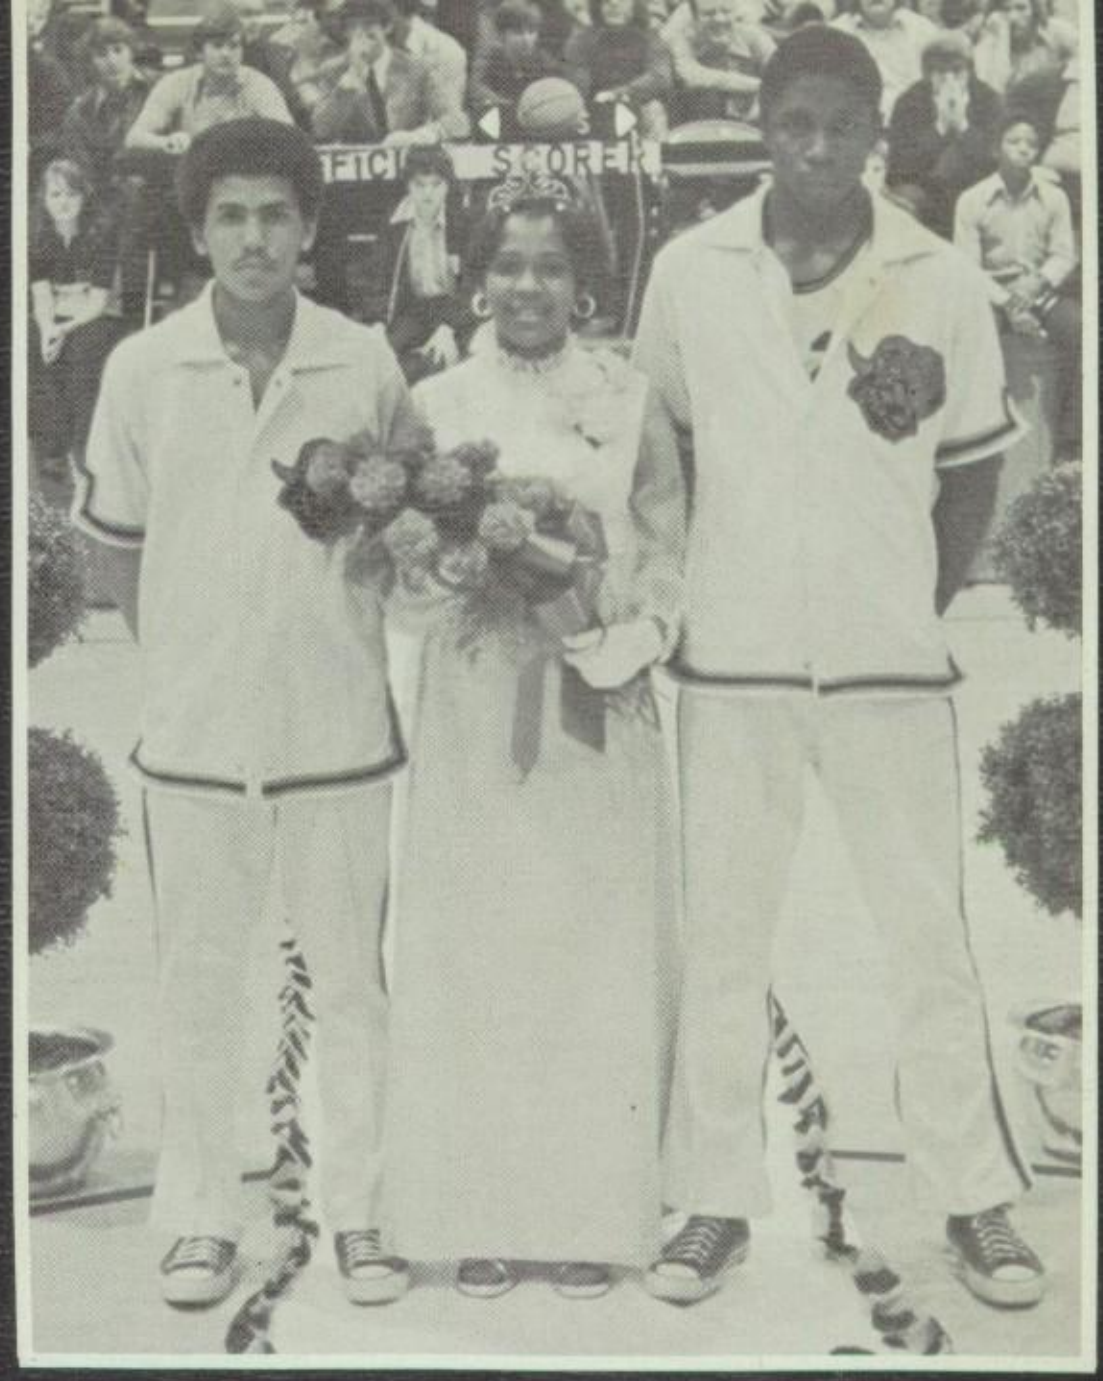


The Olmstead Ramblers met the Adairville Cardinals in a homecoming clash, and the Ramblers soundly defeated the Cardinals with a thirteen point win.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

AND HER COURT

JANET KIMBROUGH, a freshman and Black Student Body Representative, was crowned the 1974 Homecoming Queen by the co-captains of the 1973-74 Ramblers, Tyrone Sydnor and Clarence Mason, during the traditional pre-game ceremonies.



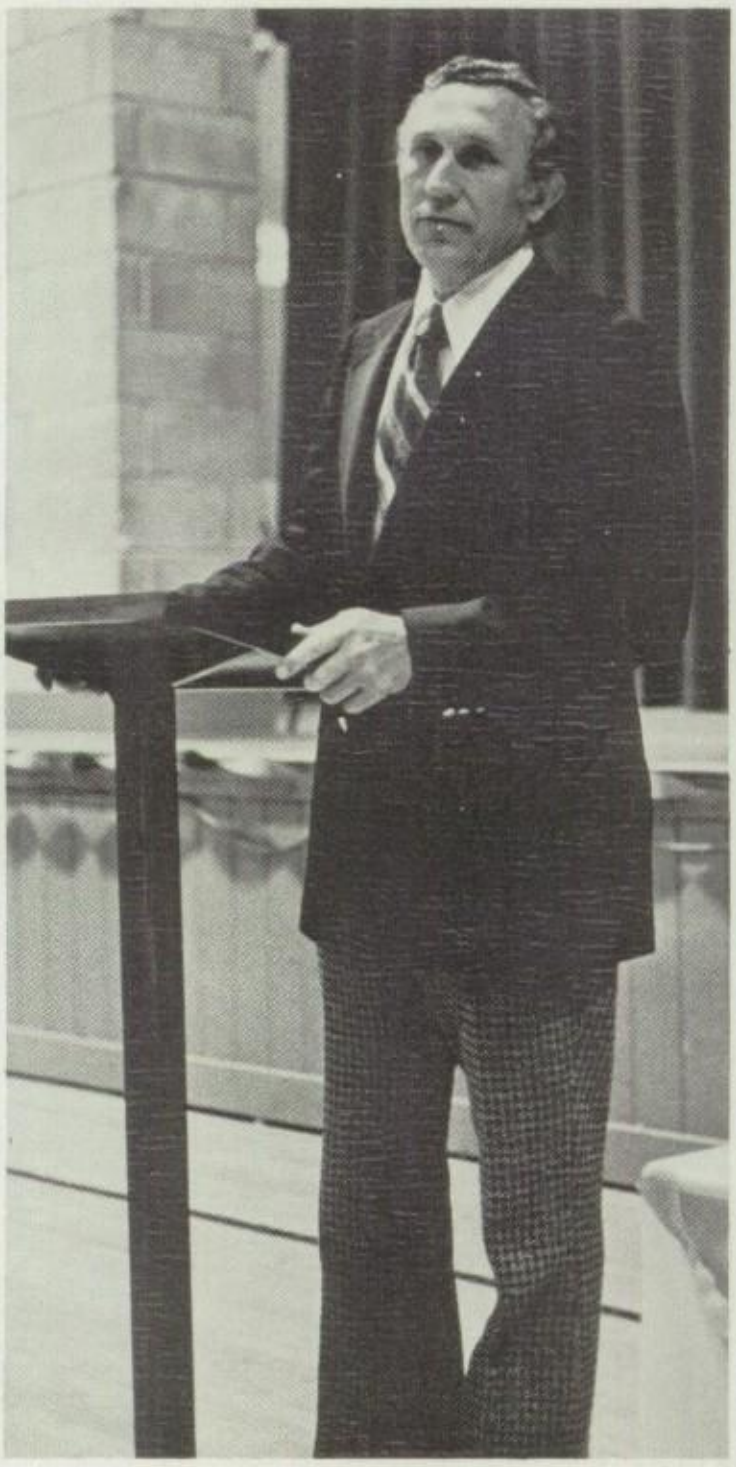
HOMECOMING COURT included Senior Representative Shirley Kemp and escort Mike Jenkins, Sophomore Representative Phyllis Huddleston and escort David Allen, Queen Janet Kimbrough and escort Wayne Bellamy, Junior Representative Emily Harvey and escort James Celsor, and Freshman Representative Sue Laurent and escort Steve Blick.

A TIME TO HONOR

ATHLETIC ACHIEVEMENTS

OHS Basketball Banquet

RECEIVING AWARDS were Tyrone Sydnor, best foul shooting percentage; Jeff McIntyre, best field goal percentage; Coaches Gary Shelton and Denny Milam; Clarence Mason, most rebounds and top scorer; and David Stratton, coaches' award.



JOHN OLDHAM, athletic director and former head basketball coach at Western Kentucky University was the speaker.

EVERYONE in attendance enjoyed the good meal and speech by Mr. Oldham. All in attendance expressed their thanks to the fine 1973-74 Team, who was runners-up in the district and who won the Sportmanship Trophy of the region.

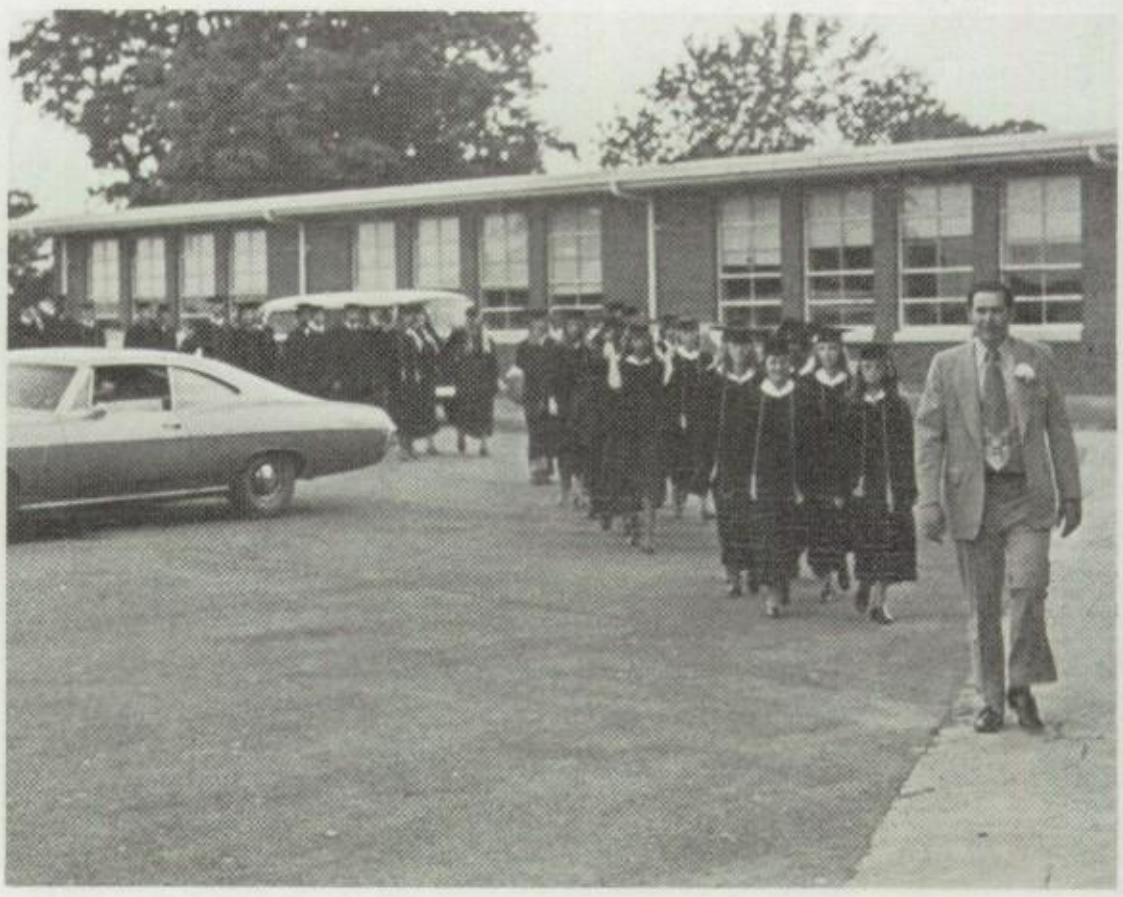
A TIME FOR

COMEDY AND LAUGHTER

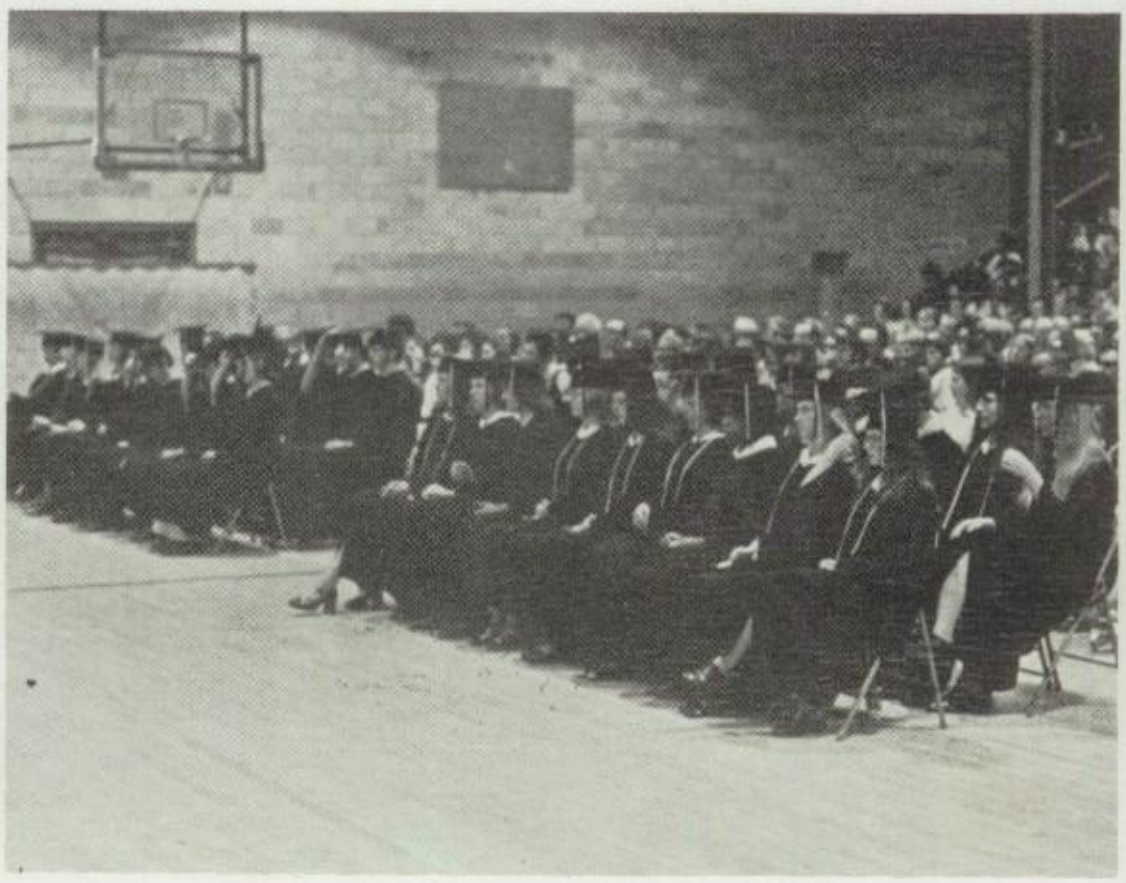
"No Boys Allowed", the Junior Play was all about Rita's slumber party that turned into a number of problems. Rita's parents were away; Vikki, the chaperon, wants to go home because Mr. Midnight, the prowler, has hugged her; Fred, Rita's ex-boyfriend, and his friend LeRoy try to frighten the girls, so that Fred can get back Rita; Keith and Harvey want food and dates to the dance; and Belinda wants Fred. All works out to the shock of all.

Graduation

A QUICK DRINK AND THEN



THE MARCH to the gymnasium in the last school line that the Graduates of the Class of 1974 will have to walk in at OHS. As the Class sat together, for many perhaps the last time to be together, Barbara Sweeney, class president performed her last official duty, which was to introduce the Commencement speaker, Dr. Elaine Sanders Bush, a former student at Olmstead.



A Time to Remember

Dr. Bush told the Graduates to do whatever they do in life well and with love. Awards for academic excellence were given during Commencement Exercises. The Valedictorian, Phyllis Holland White, and the Salutatorian, Donna Cox, were recognized and presented with awards. Scholarships were awarded to other members of the class. With the receiving of diplomas and the recessional came the happy and tearful awareness that things for the Class of '74 would never again be the same.

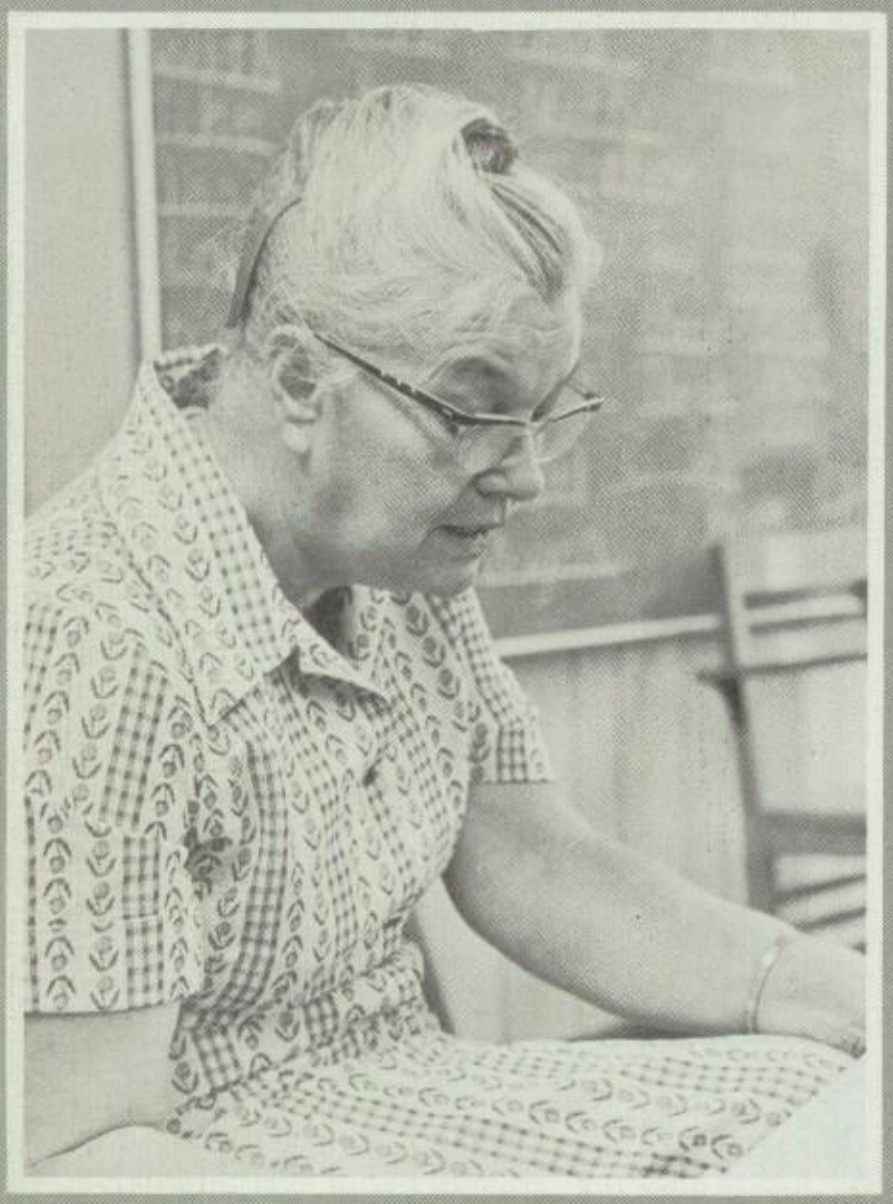
Retirement for Miss Dawson



Miss Jesse Dawson began teaching at Ash Spring, a one room school in 1926. Following this she taught at Happy Hollow, Homer, Oakland, and Keysburg.

In 1938 she returned to what was then Western Ky. State Teachers College to finish her work on her B.S. Upon receiving her degree in Home Economics she began work with the Farm Security Administration as a County Home Supervisor and later as an Area Supervisor. After ten years in this work, she went to Greenville, Ky. as a Home Demonstration Agent.

With retirement from extension work in 1967, she returned to Olmstead to resume her teaching career. She now retires with seventeen years total teaching experience. Her plans are to live at her home at Olmstead with her sister Isabelle, also a retired teacher, do church work, and enjoy her hobby of growing flowers.

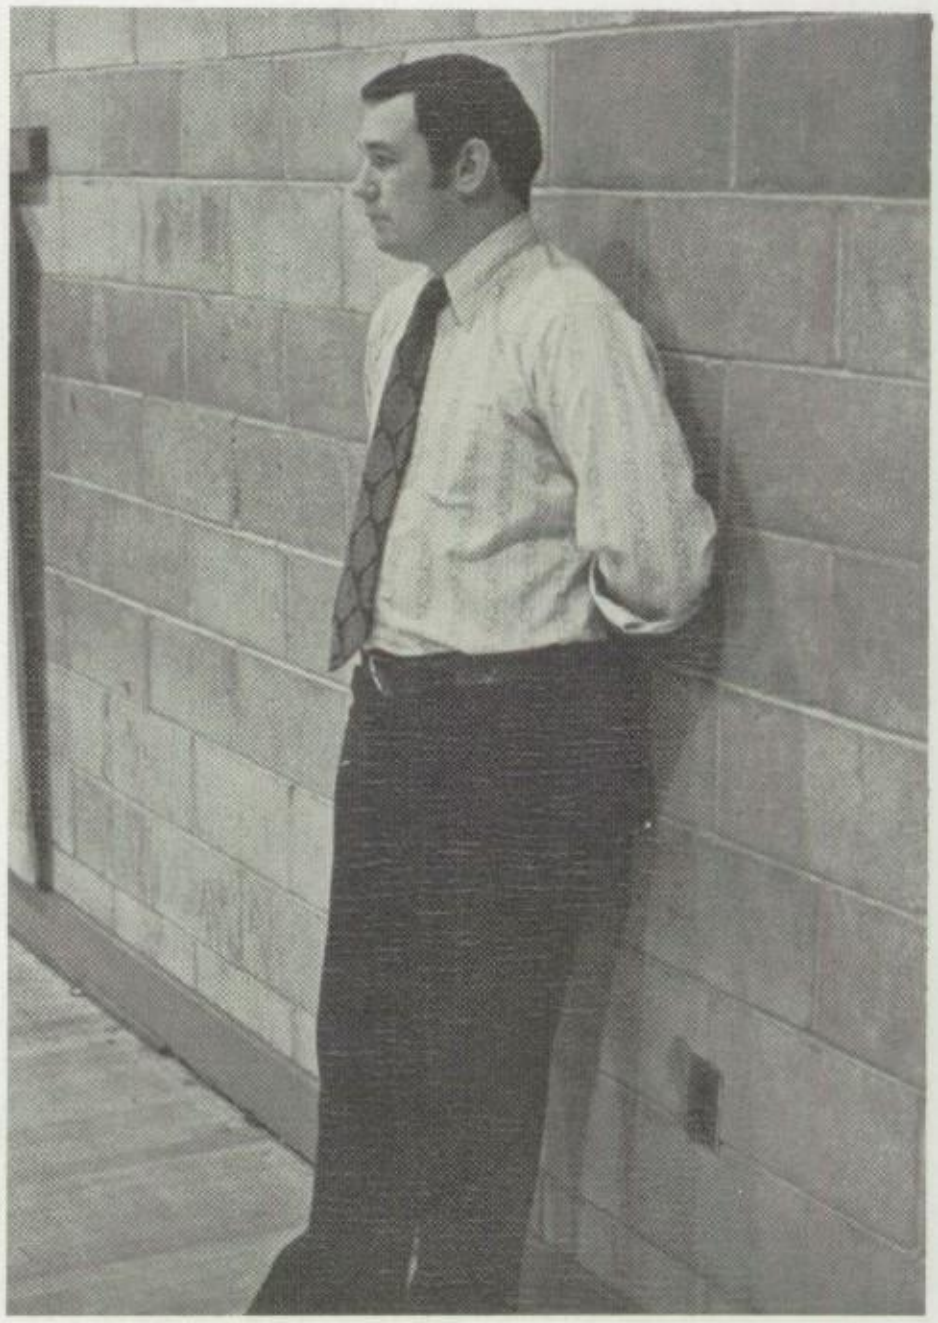
John W. McCarley

B.S. David Lipscomb
M.A. Western Ky. University
Rank I Western Ky. University

Sometimes a principal finds his job a lonesome endeavor, but in his five years at Olmstead Mr. McCarley has done much to make the school not only a place of learning and discipline, but also a place where a student can find enjoyment and himself through the varied activities and courses offered. He is always available to give advice to students and faculty and works with the community to make the school what it should be.



Guidance Counselor

Mr. Richard Price

B.S., Austin Peay State U.
M.A., Austin Peay State U.

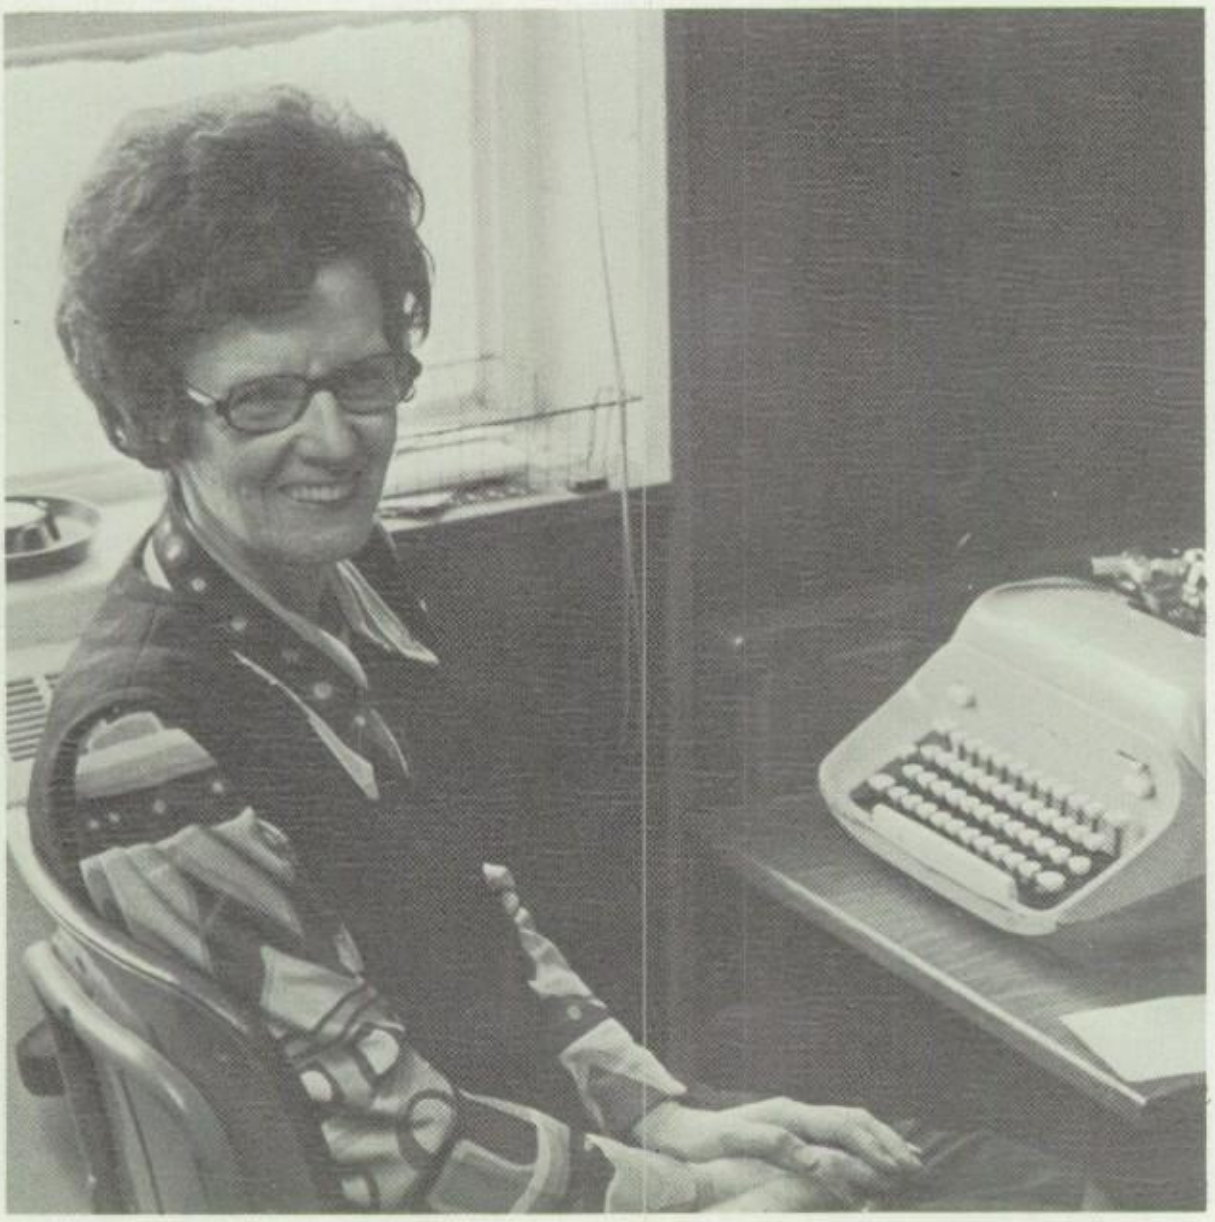
Mr. Price is Director of Guidance Services for the Logan County Schools, and for the past three years has instituted a special program for the schools on job information. This program is designed to encourage students to plan their education for their future careers.



Secretary

Mrs. Louise Downing

Mrs. Downing is always the busiest person at Olmstead, yet she is always willing to stop her work to help those who need assistance. Her patiences and help are very much appreciated by students and faculty.

THE MAN OF SOLITUDE

I know that one day, my death will come
A life of misery will finally be done
From the light of tomorrow, I no longer have to run
All suffering will be ended
And finally, all broken hearts will be mended!
How glad I will be when my end of life will be shown
And my name to myself will no longer be known
I'm a prisoner inside myself
Just about the only fool left
To myself I've been very rude
But even I am rude to the man of solitude
I wish I could be born again
And be another man among men
But I'm just a loner who doesn't have a friend
Life to me is such a drag, such a bore
I'll be glad when I don't have to worry about living anymore

The people like a loner, there are a very few
Who spend almost endless hours of solitude
But I have nothing to do but wait
And from people I have to separate
Cause they don't want me around
So as far as I'm concerned, my life is through
Cause it just isn't living, being a man of solitude.

THE LAST WORD

It has been our hope to make the 1974 RAMBLER a yearbook that would provide for the owner a book of memories of the 1973-74 school year at Olmstead and that this book has fulfilled its intended purpose of being a school yearbook for all students. It is our belief that a school year indeed does provide the student and all concerned with the school many wonderful memories, and we hope that the ones recorded here are helpful reminders for all in the years to come.
